

Lab Meats

Would lab meats be organic?

Would lab made meats meet dietary restrictions for religious standards. If some Islamic and Jewish religious scholars argue that gelatin is allowed due to the huge chemical transformation it goes through, what about petry-dish bacon?

What about bacon flavoured or scented items? Edible and not.

If not swallowing water during fasting, is Islam doesn't break one's fast, is sucking a bacon-flavoured lollipop (real thing) allowed?

What is better-- cage free and crowded or medium-sized cages with room?

hormone free
Cage free
Grass Fed

What does it mean to be organic?

land
How is it possible that all land is clean after 3 years?

What if it is these things but not organic?

Why are meat production companies so profit focused? Do they not gain any profit by quality? Are there alternatives that focus more on the quality? Is it a distribution issue? What if organic meats were most cost effective?

Do they have the opportunity to be different?
What do animals feel when they are stunned? Is it just physical paralysis? Sometimes pain without the ability to express it can be even more painful. Research shows that expressing anger, frustration, pain relieves some.

Is it possible for farmers to be competitive or even break even without be unethical to animals or the environment?

where do ethics come from?
Do ethics come from God? Through religion?
Or a derivative of social / survival instinct?

Do animals have ethics?

How do animals learn? Do they recognise / repeat what is good for them?
Do edible, domesticaed animals have the mental capacity to recognise they are about to die? Do they fear it? Will they avoid it? Are they conscious? To what extent?

are humans naturally good or bad?

Was religion, morals, ethics our coping mechanism to tempation whether that is religious or sacreligious.

If God knew we would commit the initial sin or then was religion His response?

Perhaps if it is forbidden to eat pork due to it omnivoric nature, could the correlation with intelligence in omnivores also be a reason? Should we not eat animals they are smart enough to not want to be eaten. Instinct or desire? What's the difference?

ethical

secular methods

religous methods

halal / kosher

how

Judaism:

A single, deep cut that cuts carotid arteries, jugular veins, vagus nerves, traches, and oesophagus. In between cilia and epiglottis of a permitted animal that has been blessed.

Islam:

A single, swift cut through the juglar, that allows the animals to bleed out, done in the name of God of a permitted animal or any creature of the sea.

why

Torah

Only animals that chew their cud and have split hooves are permitted. Specifically forbidden are hares, hyrax, camels, and pigs. Also, birds-of-prey, birds that hunt fish, bats, and scavengers. However fish with fins AND scales are permitted. Islam allows all creatures of the sea.

Diseased animals even if determined after slaughter are forbidden.

Breast-milk is permitted, but only until age 4 / 5. Similar in Islam.

Only dairy of a kosher animal is slaughtered.

Blood is forbidden. Animals that have been hunted by other animals. Also which is dead by natural causes. Same in Islam.

Qur'an

He hath only forbidden you dead meat, and blood, and the flesh of swine, and that on which any other name hath been invoked besides that of God. But if one is forced by necessity, without wilful disobedience, nor transgressing due limits,- then is he guiltless. For God is Oft-forgiving Most Merciful. -[2:173]

Forbidden to you (for food) are: dead meat, blood, the flesh of swine, and that on which hath been invoked the name of other than Allah. that which hath been killed by strangling, or by a violent blow, or by a headlong fall, or by being gored to death; that which hath been (partly) eaten by a wild animal; unless ye are able to slaughter it (in due form); that which is sacrificed on stone (altars); (forbidden) also is the division (of meat) by raffling with arrows: that is impiety. -[05:03]

Ethics of Animal Slaughter

Is ritual slaughter a painless death if done properly?

Can we measure pain in animals during the processes?

Ethics, Pain, and Slaughter Mind-Map