

You Matter

Many of us enjoy meat whether we're raising the animals or enjoying a home-cooked meal.

We, at est, promote the ethical raising and slaughter of animals, ethical farming practices, and ethical sale of the meat.

With est—everyone's happy

Get Involved

Come, be a part of a cause that promotes happiness for everyone!

Join us at moralmeats.com and contribute a $5/month donation. We then give you specials toward est certified products at locations across America and an invitation to host local meetups to watch and attend our annual conference.

Get Going

If you're a farmer, grocer, or restaurant that is interested in est and what it promotes, please feel free to reach out at learn@moralmeats.com

Get started with our starter kit! You'll be able to free yourself from a world of unethical, profit focused meat and into a world of mutual appreciation, respect, and success.
